

Did you know...

Slavery stills exists in our world? It can be found around the world, in the United States and even in the Baptist Convention of New York territory The United States is the number one destination for trafficking humans and approximately 300,000 children are sexually exploited each year.

What is Human Exploitation?

Human exploitation is the unethical, selfish use of human beings for the satisfaction of personal desires and/or profitable advantage. It includes labor trafficking, sex trafficking, media exploitation, pornography, bullying and exploitation of natural resources.

Will you pray?

The issue of trafficking and exploitation is not just a social issue. It's a spiritual issue. Will you begin to pray and ask God to heal those who have been affected by human trafficking? Will you ask God to move your heart in response to the issue? Will you respond to His calling to make a difference?

Would you like to know more?

Visit www.bcnysbc.org/women to view resources.

The Women's Office of the BCNY is supported by the generous gifts of the Cooperative Program to make Christ known.

Did you know...

Slavery stills exists in our world? It can be found around the world, in the United States and even in the Baptist Convention of New York territory The United States is the number one destination for trafficking humans and approximately 300,000 children are sexually exploited each year.

What is Human Exploitation?

Human exploitation is the unethical, selfish use of human beings for the satisfaction of personal desires and/or profitable advantage. It includes labor trafficking, sex trafficking, media exploitation, pornography, bullying and exploitation of natural resources.

Will you pray?

The issue of trafficking and exploitation is not just a social issue. It's a spiritual issue. Will you begin to pray and ask God to heal those who have been affected by human trafficking? Will you ask God to move your heart in response to the issue? Will you respond to His calling to make a difference?

Would you like to know more?

Visit www.bcnysbc.org/women to view resources.

The Women's Office of the BCNY is supported by the generous gifts of the Cooperative Program to make Christ known.

So you want to make a difference?

Here are some things you can do in response to the issue of trafficking and exploitation:

- Continue to pray against the issue. A prayer bookmark is available at www.bgco.org/women.
- Share the STOP Trafficking video on your Facebook page. (video at www.bgcowomen.org)
- Begin a truck stop ministry in your area. Take a group and prayerwalk around a truck stop area.
- Begin a Celebrate Recovery ministry in your church. For more information, go to www.saddlebackresources.com.
- Recognize and honor local law enforcement officers and thank them for their work towards prosecuting traffickers.
- Promote internet safety with your students and equip them to address the issues of bullying and sexting.
- Host a WorldCrafts party. WorldCrafts is a ministry through WMU that develops sustainable, fair-trade businesses among impoverished people around the world. (details at www.worldcrafts.org)
- Report suspicious activity that might involve labor trafficking, including nail salons or migrant workers. Call 888-3737-888.
- Contact the International Mission Board for short-term mission trip opportunities that target working in areas where sex trafficking is prevalent. (www.imb.org)
- Consider the chocolate you purchase and the companies who produce it. Many of them force children into working at coca plantations.
- Support the Cooperative Program and mission offerings. Many Southern Baptist missionaries are involved in fighting the issue overseas as well as in the United States and Oklahoma.
- Promote healthy men's ministries. Ask the Lord to raise a generation of men who resist the temptations of pornography and sexual sin.

So you want to make a difference?

Here are some things you can do in response to the issue of trafficking and exploitation:

- Continue to pray against the issue. A prayer bookmark is available at www.bgco.org/women.
- Share the STOP Trafficking video on your Facebook page. (video at www.bgcowomen.org)
- Begin a truck stop ministry in your area. Take a group and prayerwalk around a truck stop area.
- Begin a Celebrate Recovery ministry in your church. For more information, go to www.saddlebackresources.com.
- Recognize and honor local law enforcement officers and thank them for their work towards prosecuting traffickers.
- Promote internet safety with your students and equip them to address the issues of bullying and sexting.
- Host a WorldCrafts party. WorldCrafts is a ministry through WMU that develops sustainable, fair-trade businesses among impoverished people around the world. (details at www.worldcrafts.org)
- Report suspicious activity that might involve labor trafficking, including nail salons or migrant workers. Call 888-3737-888.
- Contact the International Mission Board for short-term mission trip opportunities that target working in areas where sex trafficking is prevalent. (www.imb.org)
- Consider the chocolate you purchase and the companies who produce it. Many of them force children into working at coca plantations.
- Support the Cooperative Program and mission offerings. Many Southern Baptist missionaries are involved in fighting the issue overseas as well as in the United States and Oklahoma.
- Promote healthy men's ministries. Ask the Lord to raise a generation of men who resist the temptations of pornography and sexual sin.