10:30 AM Workshops

The Calling for Discipleship and the Role of Mission Education: This workshop is intended to demonstrate how with mission education, we can provide discipleship to different age groups. For the younger generations it has the added benefit of promoting positive social interactions, empowering children to avoid situations of bullying, harassment and intimidation. Adolescents and young adults experience discipleship by doing missions. Led by Ina Rios

She Leads: Lessons in Leadership for a New Generation: Does every woman have leadership potential? Learn from great leaders, past, present and how you can use your gifts to lead more effectively. Led by Candice Lee

Winning the Battle for Missions - The spiritual prayer battle for missions: The enemy is working overtime to keep us from fulfilling the "Great Commission". What is my part in God's call? How can I spiritually fight to win the battle for missions. Led by Elaine O'Neill

Knowing your needs, How to find out how to care for your community: The goal of this breakout is to give concrete tools that leaders can use to accurately assess the vulnerabilities that most impact their congregation and community. Led by Raleigh Sadler

Kingdom Expansion: Recruit, Train and Mobilize Leaders for Ministry: Learn how to effectively recruit people for ministry service, train and coach others for ministry service, and increase the ownership and skills in those serving in leadership. Led by Sharon Haller

HELP! I NEED COURAGE! In our 90 minutes together we will look at the Biblical mandate for sharing our faith. We will look at practical ways we can build our courage. We will look at some tools that can be used for the "faint of heart" in beginning to share your faith. Our workshop will be a safe place to learn – without judgment and guilt. Led by Tommy Echols

Hello "I'm a missionary"! Come join us as Sandy Wisdom Martin, Christy Dyer and the IMB Missionary, share about the ministry God has called them to lead. Each will share their story and passion on being on mission with God! This session will include a question and answer time.
